Major-Gen. Otis Calls on the Mayor to Discuss the Proposed Memorial to Dr. Jose Rizal.

Major-Gen. Elwell S. Otis, retired, who was commander of the United States Army in the Philippines after the war with Spain, today called on Mayor Low to discuss affairs of the Rizal Monument Committee, of which the Mayor is Chairman.

The committee, which includes Mayor Low, Chairman; Gen. Otis, President; Schurman, of Cornell University; President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of the University of California; and John R. Proctor, of the United States Civil Service Board, was appointed last December to raise funds for the erection of a monument to Dr. Jose Rizal, a Filipino author and poet, who was killed by the Spanish war. Dr. Rizal was considered by his countrymen the greatest literary product of the islands. It is proposed to erect a monument in Manila to his memory, and all the members of the committee have accepted but Mr. Proctor, who has not yet been heard from.

Gen. Otis asked the Mayor to call a meeting of the committee while he was in New York, as he returns to the West in three days. The Mayor said he would try to do so.

Dr. Jose Rizal was known principally for his book, "Noli me Tangere," or "Filiars and Filipinos." This book, and others, eventually cost his life. The book mentioned the Philippines, was one of the chief causes for the revolution of 1896 and 1898, as it was read at mass meetings wherever possible. Mayor Low, in speaking about the committee, said he hoped that the raising of funds would be a happy task, as it would be the greatest stroke of diplomacy to carry out such a project, as it was the wish of the Philippines to have this monument, and they did not have the money themselves. Judge Taft, he said, when he last saw him, strongly favored the project and said he would use his best efforts to aid the work.

PARROT INNOCENT CAUSE OF A ROW.

Not Too Much Talk, but Ownership of the Bird Has Parted a Jersey City Family—Not Settled Yet.

Harmony in the family of Mrs. Ellen Dundon, of No. 16 Gregory street, Jersey City, has been suddenly broken and all because of a Canadian parrot.

Mrs. Dundon, her son Edward and her married daughter, Mrs. Mary McMahon and Mrs. Margaret Hunt, were in the First Criminal Court today to settle the family dish about its ownership. Originally the bird belonged to Edward Dundon, but he gave it to his mother in lieu of board and in time she came to believe that sufficient consideration had passed to give her complete possession. Therefore she felt justified in selling the bird to Mrs. McMahon for $4. The daughter paid 20 cents down and agreed to pay the rest in five installments. Mrs. McMahon, however, declared it was hers. She had paid 40 cents on it. The argument brought the police and the family went to court. Judge Hoar told them to settle the dispute in the civil courts.

"DECEIVED," SAY ANGRY BURGHERS.

Boers Indignant Over Promised Aid from France and Germany, Which Failed—10,225 Have Surrendered.

PRETORIA, Wednesday, June 11.—In all 10,225 Boers have surrendered up to date. Many are youngsters of eleven years old and upward.

The majority of them are under thirty, though some of the burghers who have surrendered are septuagenarians. Reports from all the districts say that the burghers are increasingly friendly.

The only bitterness observable among the leading Boers here is against France and Germany. They declare the war was protracted unnecessarily owing to hopes held out by the French and German press. Some of the Boers are so incensed that they have expressed the hope that some day they will fight on the side of the British against one of these powers.

The anticipated friction between the surrendered Boers and their former comrades of the National Scouts has not materialized to any extent.

The Boers who received ammunition through Portuguese territory. Gen. De Wet says the youngsters were his best fighters and frequently held positions after the older burghers had cleared out.

DAVID WARFIELD RECOVERS. Comedian Will Be Able to See Friends Soon.

Dave Warfield's physicians at the General Memorial Hospital said today that he had progressed so favorably that on Monday he would be able to receive a few of his intimate friends. The comedian's friends have been calling at the hospital in droves, and when told of their little slip, he expressed a wish to see them. After this morning's consultation, when the physicians pronounced him past all danger and absolutely certain of recovery, he was told that he could see some of his friends and talk with them about his arrangements for leaving the hospital.

Capt. Thompson, of Schooner Small, Spins Yarn of the Black Cook Who Actually Changed Color.

"I had often heard the story of a colored man turning white from fear, but not until I witnessed the transformation myself did I believe it."

So spoke Capt. Z. R. Thompson, of the three-masted schooner, Rock A. Small, as the vessel, almost a complete wreck, was placed on the dry-dock in Hoboken today. The Fred A. Small, which hailed from Maine, left Valparaiso, South America, several weeks ago, with a cargo of dry wood, birds and monkeys. When six days out she ran into a terrific "sea" and the storm continued for five days, ripping off nearly all the sails and carrying away the topmasts and bowsprit.

"I have been to sea for thirty years," said Capt. Thompson, "but I never had such an experience as this. The waves ran mountains high, and every time one of them struck the ship you could feel the vessel tremble and I expected every moment we would go to the bottom. For five days and nights we never slept. Our cook, Henry Bianco, is a negro, but for three days his skin was as white as mine. He was so badly frightened that he actually turned white."

The 6-day June Jubilee of Special Sales SIEGEL COOPER & CO.

It's a Great Week.

But then it's a great Store incessantly doing great things in a new and different way.

It isn't a store that believes in following the beaten path, of plodding along in a stereotyped, listless fashion. It is a Store full of ambitious effort; a Store that strives indefatigably and continually to make itself more interesting and more helpful. Originality and energy are among its chiefest attributes. And so this 6-day June Jubilee of Special Sales was planned. Not devised to lapse into memory after the first busy day, but to intensify as the week progressed; to show you mountains of fresh, new merchandise priced in a way to win and retain your attention and admiration. Huge crowds have been streaming into the Store all week. A new era of June selling has been created. Past records have been swept away as leaves whirled before a September gale. Each day has contributed its own surprises. Each day has seen its predecessor outstripped in the matter of great selling. The specials for to-morrow luminously illustrate the force and importance of the event.
